Application No.: LCC/24/81

1. Shri Annasaheb B. Rabade. — Applicant
V/s.

1. The Director, Chowgule Real Estate & Construction Co. Private Limited. — Opponent

Applicant represented by Shri Ashokrao Upadhye, Labour Advisor.

Opponent represented by Shri D. P. Sinha.

Panaji, Dated: 7-1-1983.

AWARD

This is an application under Section 33C(2) of the I.D.A. 1947, hereinafter called the Act, made by the above applicant against the above opponent, claiming from the latter the total amount of Rs. 16,512/- as per the details given in the annexure to the application.

2. It is applicant's case that he was working for the opponent as Store Clerk since 31-8-1976 till 13-12-1980, date on which he resigned. His total salary per month was Rs. 180/-. The Opponent has not paid his wages as per the Minimum Wages Act fixed by the Government from 31-8-1976 as well as D.A. as declared by the Government. He has claimed those amounts and also others like Bonus, House Rent, etc.

3. The Opponent Company, in its written statement, has raised a preliminary objection saying that the applicant's claim is not maintainable under Section 33C(2) of the Act since the main prayer of the applicant is for minimum wages under the Minimum Wages Act and Section 20 of this Act has provided regarding the competent authority before whom such claim is to be filed, which procedure has not been followed by the applicant; besides, it is contended that under Section 22 of the Minimum Wages Act this application ought to have been made within a period of 6 months from the date the claim has become due.

4. The applicant, although granted time, at his request, to reply to the preliminary objection raised by the opponent, did not file any reply.

5. The following preliminary issue was framed by the Court:

"Whether it is proved that this application is maintainable under Section 33C(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 or Minimum Wages Act, 1948?"

6. Date was fixed for arguments and, on the date so fixed, only the representative of the opponent remained present and argued the matter.

7. I have duly considered the objection raised by the Ld. Rep. of the Employer and I concur with his view that under Section 20 of the Minimum Wages Act the proper authority appointed by the Government to hear claims regarding Minimum Wages, which is the main prayer of the applicant, is the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation i.e. the Labour Commissioner. Being so, this Court has no jurisdiction to entertain the claim filed by the applicant. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

The application filed by the applicant is hereby dismissed for want of jurisdiction by this Court. No order as to costs.

1. Shri M. D. Kamat Ghanekar — Applicant
V/s.

1. M/s. Timblo Stores — Opponent

Panaji, Dated: 10-1-1983

AWARD

This is an application filed by the above applicant against the above opponent praying that his dues, as mentioned in the annexure, be recovered from the Opponent.

2. It is applicant's case that he was working for the Opponent from 6-10-1954 as a Salesman and his services were terminated w.e.f. 1-4-1980 without payment of any compensation. He was drawing a salary of Rs. 270/- per month at the time of termination of his services. He has claimed a total amount of Rs. 3,814/80, as his retrenchment compensation, notice pay, leave salary and salary.

3. On the date fixed, both the parties remained absent, although duly served. However, the applicant sent a letter by post stating that he has received all dues and has no further claim against the opponent. Notice was issued to the applicant to remain present in Court to confirm his signature on the said letter. On the fresh date now fixed, the applicant continued to remain absent, but the opponent remained present and stated that the matter is settled between the parties and produced the original of the settlement entered into by both the parties alongwith a receipt for payment of Rs. 5,600/- issued to the applicant by the opponent and prayed that the matter may be treated as closed as it has been settled between the parties.

4. In view of the settlement terms filed by the opponent and the receipt issued by the applicant, which is in conformity with the letter sent by the applicant to this Court by post, I am satisfied that the dispute has been settled between the parties for the amount of Rs. 5,600/- which amount has been already paid to the applicant. Hence, I pass the following order:

ORDER

As the dispute has been settled between the parties, this application be treated as closed and the matter is disposed off. No order as to costs.
